WESTERLY AND VICINITY

Monson Family, of Albany, in Auto Collision at Pendleton Hill—Committee to Purchase and Beautify Watch Hill Midway—Saturday's Ball Games—Eddie Connelly Has Finger Amputated—Road Improvements.

Last year there was an organized opposition against the renomination of Senator Louis W. Arnold and the polls were kept open from four in the afternoon until nine at night and every effort made to defeat the nomination of Senator Arnold, but when the votes were counted he was renominated by a large majority.

Since then there has been effort on the part of a few to oppose the senator's nomination again, but they have not been able to find any suitable person who is willing to enter the arena with the senator for a fight for the nomination in Westerly the republican nomination is equal to election as there is likely to be no democratic opposition, and if there is it is so slight that it is not given consideration.

Therefore Senator Arnold's renomi-nation is considered a sure thing and where the contest interests the Westerly people, Representative Albert H. Lang-worthy will also be renominated for the lower house without opposition.

Down on the Shore road surveys are establishing a grade from Avondale road to Brightman's pond, and as soon as this is completed contract will be given for the rebuilding of that road up to the excellent standard established by the state committee on roads.

Then there is another stretch of road that will intersect the Westerly road, as contract has been awarded to Bryan F. Mahan, of New London, and work will be commenced on the road this week. That is the four mile stretch from Pleasant street to the Potter Hill road, which extends into the village of Ashaway and beyond. It is understood that the work on this road will be commenced at the bridge and proceed towards the village of Westerly, and will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

James O. Hazard, of the Anguilla section, who is making a special study of forestry, and who is completing his studies at Yale, is home on a ten days' vacation having just returned from the summer school of forestry in Milford, Pa. In order to take the forestry course at Yale the student must be a graduate of some college, and with a knowledge of forestry, Mr. Hazard graduated from the Pawcatuck High school, from the Westerly High school and from Brown university, and is now taking the forestry course at Yale.
Mr. Hazard, during prior vacations has given the scientific attention to the trees in Wilcox park and also to many shaded trees in Westerly, and has supervised the spraying of trees for the extermination of the moth and beetle.
Mr. Hazard is of athletic build and was once the leading player of the Brown football team.

There was a head-on automobile collision on Pendleton Hill Sunday morning, that resulted in damaged machinery but the occupants of the car escaped injury. S. L. Munson, wife,

ITCHED TWELVE YEARS
Eczema Made Hands and Feet Swell, Peel and Get Raw—Arms Affected, Too—Gave Up All Hope of Cure, QUICKLY CURED BY CUTICURA

"I suffered from eczema on my hands, arms and feet for about twelve years.
My hands and feet would swell, sweat and itch, then would become callous and very dry, and I would get raw. I tried most every kind of salve and ointment without success. I tried several doctors, but at last, after thinking there was a cure for eczema. A friend of mine insisted on my trying the Cuticure Remedies, but I did not give them a trial until I got so bad that I had to do something. I secured a set and by the time they were used I could see a vast improvement, and my hands and feet were healed up in no time. I have had no trouble since. Charles T. Bauer, R. F. D.
No. 6, Volant, Pa., Mar. 11, 1905."

St. Onge and Flynn was the post office battery and Johnson and Shea for the Young Men's.
With the score 2 to 2 at the end of thirteen innings the baseball game in Mystic Saturday between the New London Independents and Mystic was called on account of darkness.
Col. Albert N. Crandall and Joseph A. Scholfield, who went to Salt Lake City to attend the national camp-ment of the Grand Army of the Republic, returned Saturday to Westerly.
W. Marshall Taylor, now of Williams, and formerly employed in the Clark Thread Mill here, is to be employed in the Westerly Narrow Fabric mill, as soon as that concern is in operation.
Noyes Spicer of New York city has purchased from Mrs. Ada L. Burdick the two houses and large area of land in Maxson street known as the "Inter: Henry Langworthy place at Potter Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Briggs will occupy the place until spring, when the Spicer family will take up their residence there.

Billy Ralston, the dwarf comedian who has been playing at the Elven opera house during the past week, says he likes Westerly and proposes to build a home and make Westerly his place of residence.
Miss Cora Tomlinson, daughter of Rev. George E. Tomlinson, formerly of Westerly, died Friday in Elizabeth, N. J. aged 46. Burial is to be in Westerly. She has been a teacher in New York for several years.
Eddie Connelly of Providence, catcher for the Westerly team in a game with Stonington, who had a habit of blinding the umpire behind the bat by picking up a handful of earth and throwing it behind him, has had the forefinger of his right hand amputated at the first joint. In the game with Stonington the tip of the finger was struck by a ball tearing the nail. Blood poisoning set in and amputation became necessary.

It is now just 50 years since we organized the GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA COMPANY to supply consumers direct with TEAS, COFFEES and GROCERIES at less than wholesale prices, and do away entirely with all middlemen's profits. We are free to admit that the idea at the time was a revolutionary and bold one, that it struck at the very foundation of the routine traffic of middlemen, who had grown rusty and covey in the rut of the grocery trade as it had existed for ages. We well remember the consternation it produced among grocers, both large and small, when we announced that we would sell to consumers at less than wholesale prices in any quantity. What direful and foreboding were uttered against our undertaking. These were loudest and most pointed when uttered by those most to be affected by our success, and whose large profits on these articles of every day necessity were most to be affected by our new and startling enterprise. We will not deny that some of our best friends and well-wishers were nervous and timorous that we might not be equal to the full completion of such a stupendous undertaking.
This was, perhaps, because they had not investigated the matter sufficiently to form a correct judgment. But for ourselves we can conscientiously say that we never for a moment lost faith in the soundness of our plans nor in the correctness of the commercial principle that actuated us at the time of starting our enterprise, and which has been our guiding star all along through fifty years of its success, and that is, that the nearer the producer and consumer can be brought together by avoiding all the intermediate exchanges or transfers possible, the better will it be for producer and consumer, and the better for all mankind, because one hundred exchanges can add nothing to the real value of an article, although it may add many times its cost. The time, talent and capital, of all the unnecessary exchanges might have been more usefully employed in producing, or adding to values by manufacturing many other useful articles, the product of which would benefit and adorn the world.
